

Name: _____ Class: _____ Date: _____

Finding information online – Scotland

Let's get to know Scotland a bit better. You are going to find information online. Be sure to think through your searches thoroughly. You will be working in groups as you do this.

1. Name three famous writers from Scotland.

–

1.1. What was your keyword query?

—

1.2. When you looked at your search results, how did you decide which sites to look at?

—

–

2. What are tartans? Use google image search as well as a normal google search.

–

Name: _____ Class: _____ Date: _____

2.1. Which was your keyword query?

2.2. Did the image search tell you more or less than your normal search? In what way?

—

3. What kind of food is typical for Scotland?

—

3.1. What was your keyword query?

3.2. Make sure you use at least two different websites to find the informations. Which ones do you choose?

—

—

Name: _____ Class: _____ Date: _____

3.3. Compare the two websites. Which one is easier to understand? Why? What differences are there between the websites? Discuss.

—

—

4. What ingredients are always in haggis?

—

4.1. Which keyword query did you use?

—

4.2. Which websites did you use? (At least two.)

—

Name: _____ Class: _____ Date: _____

4.3. Why is this question hard to answer?

5. Name at least three famous people originally from Scotland who do not live there anymore.

5.1. What was your keyword query?

5.2. When you looked at your search results, how did you decide which sites to look at?

6. Which are the biggest cities in Scotland? How many people live there?

Name: _____ Class: _____ Date: _____

6.1. Why is this question difficult to answer?

6.2. Is it possible to find one correct answer to this question? Why? Why not?

7. What is Hogmanay?

7.1. Which keyword query did you use?

Name: _____ Class: _____ Date: _____

7.2. When you looked at your search results, how did you decide which sites to look at?

7.3. Which website is more reliable? Why?
